

National Water College Training Includes:

- 15 week intense hands-on training.
- Water and wastewater utility operator skill development.
- State certification preparation.
- Industry required safety training.

Water & Wastewater Careers:

- Utilities require 10,000 new operators every year.
- Over 50,000 certified operators retiring within 10 years.
- Graduate placement in all 50 states.
- Median Operator wage: $35.28/hour.

NWC:

Where the next generation of water and wastewater professionals learn, train, and prepare for a lifetime career!

Drinking Water
Certification

Wastewater
Certification

National Water College Students

- Start your career in the essential water industry.
- Train to become a water or wastewater professional operator who manages, treats, and delivers these essential services.
- The water industry offers reliable careers that make a real impact with competitive wages and growth opportunities.
- Career opportunities nationwide.

National Water College

Mission Statement:

The premier training program for the water and wastewater industry, ensuring graduates will be equipped with advanced technical skills and industry specific expertise through hands-on instruction. Graduates are job ready and prepared to contribute from day one, bringing confidence, adaptability, strong communication, and teamwork skills to excel in the water industry.

NATIONAL WATER COLLEGE

CONTACT US

Kevin Mraz - Founder
National Director - Wisconsin
Utility Director
Algoma Sanitary District #1
Kevin@AlgomaSD.org
(920) 420-9267

WRWA
351 Water Way
Plover, WI 54467
Phone 715-344-7778
WWW.WRWA.ORG

National Water College

Water and Wastewater Training Concepts & Skills

- Utility plant operations and management
- Groundwater and surface water treatment
- Ponds and lagoons operations
- SCADA operations

- Laboratory testing, water analysis & chemical dosing
- Water industry math calculations
- Wastewater collection system

- Water distribution system
- Hydrant directional flushing
- Water meter installation
- Watermain leak location
- Watermain isolation & repair

- Wastewater collection system
- Cross connection certification
- Confined space certification
- Generator and pump operations

- Electrical safety and instrumentation
- Lock out / tag out
- Emergency and natural disaster response
- * CDL as an extra option *

National Water College

15 Weeks from Start to Career

- Week 1–6: Foundations & Core Concepts
- Week 7–13: Hands-On Training & Field Skills
- Week 14–15: Certification Prep & Job Placement Support

Graduates are prepared for roles such as:

- Water Treatment Operator
- Wastewater Technician
- Distribution System Operator
- Environmental Technician
- Utility Construction

Become a
National Water College
Graduate:

Why choose NWC?

- Water Industry focused training
- Experienced instructors
- Hands-on learning environment
- Job placement assistance
- High-demand career field
- Job readiness - interview skills
- Career placement assistance
- Prepare for and take the state operator certification exams

Excavation Trench Safety / Competent Person Training

Learn safety procedure and theory in classroom

Develop safe skills in real world field training center.

